No.—8097.

I am directed to refer to the telegram from the Government of India, No. 089 (Sanitary), dated the 28th April 1913, requesting that the Government of Bombay will take steps to ascertain publicly the feeling of the Muhammadan community of the Presidency, and especially of the Haj Committee, with regard to the proposals relating to the conduct of the Haj pilgrim traffic contained in their letter No. 2896, dated the 11th April 1913.

Sanry. A., June 1914, Nos. 6-19.

2. In reply I am to submit, for the information of the Government of India, the accompanying synopsis of the opinions elicited through the Collectors and Political Agents and, in the case of Bombay City, through the Commissioner of Police from the various Musalman Anjumans and Associations and the local leaders and influential members of the Muhammadan community in the several districts and political agencies of the Presidency and in Bombay itself. The synopsis contains also a statement of the views of the Haj Committee.

3. I am to state that, after the opinions thus obtained had been considered, this Government thought it advisable to hold an informal conference with a small number of the leading representatives of the Musalman community for the purpose of the frank and full discussion of the whole question. The conference was held on the 31st July last under the presidency of the Hon'ble Mr. Claude Hill. I am to submit herewith a copy of the notes taken of the discussion.

4. In accordance with the intention expressed at the close of the proceedings of the Committee, the opinions elicited in the course of the discussion, together with those referred to in paragraph 2 above, were communicated to Khan Bahadur Sayid Shams-ed-din Sayid Mian Kadri, Collector of West Khandesh, who had recently vacated the post of Oriental Translator to Government and who may be regarded as adequately representing the more enlightened and advanced section of the Muhammadan community of the Presidency proper, with a request that he would state his personal views with regard to the several objections urged against the proposals of this Government and would make any suggestions or recommendations that he might think proper for dealing with the problem of the Haj pilgrim traffic. I am to submit for the information of the Government of India a copy of the note which has been received from him in response to this reference.

5. On a consideration of the recommendations embodied in Mr. Kadri's note this Government entered into communication with Messrs. Turner, Morrison and Company with a view to ascertaining whether they were prepared to fall in with the principal feature of these recommendations, namely, the substitution of an optional for a compulsory return ticket system, combined with a tariff in which the rates for the return passage were so preponderatingly favourable as to provide a very strong inducement to the pilgrims to purchase return tickets, and, if so, what scale of maximum rates they were prepared to quote. The opportunity was also taken of discussing with them the more important of the objections urged against the original proposals with a view to discovering what, if any, means they could suggest for overcoming the difficulties on which they were based.

6. The representative of Messrs. Turner, Morrison and Company, with whom these questions were discussed, was not in a position to give any definite reply regarding the new proposals until he had referred the matter to his home firm. The Governor in Council has now, however, received the firm's reply to these proposals and, having also had an opportunity of watching events connected with the recent outward pilgrim season, is in a position to present his views on the objections that have been urged against the original scheme and to formulate certain revised proposals as the result of the discussions that have taken place.

7. In the first place I am to observe that the most striking point which emerges from the large body of opinion collected from all parts of the Presidency is the apparent absence of any general or emphatic opposition to the principle of the compulsory return tickets system. Muhammadan opinion on this side of India would appear to have undergone a very considerable transformation in regard to this question since the discussions of 1908. Another noteworthy point is that the opposition to the grant of a monopoly of the pilgrim traffic to a single shipping company, and that too, one controlled by a European firm, is apparently by no means so strong as might have been anticipated. On the whole, it may be said that, so far as any conclusions can be formed from these opinions, the original proposals of this Government have met with a more favourable reception than could have been expected. The points of objection, where there is objection, have reference for the most part to matters of detail, such, for instance, as the alleged costliness of the rates proposed, the shortness of the period during which a speedy return passage is guaranteed, and the absence of provision for the refund of the value of the return half of a ticket in the case of pilgrims returning to India by another route. In fact the objections are, generally speaking, such as could to a considerable extent if not entirely, be met by a modification of the scheme in certain of its subsidiary features.

Secy. A., January 1909, Nos. 34-35.

8. This view of the attitude of the Muhammadan community towards the scheme must, however, be largely discounted by the results of the conference with its leading representatives, which give proof of so determined and uncompromising an antagonism to the main principle underlying the scheme, namely, that of compulsion in the matter of return tickets, that it would be in vain to expect that the adoption of the scheme, even if the practical difficulties incidental to the latter could be met in an entirely adequate and satisfactory fashion, should proceed without incurring the danger of provoking considerable popular opposition and resentment. This antagonism may, not improbably, be due to influences originating outside this Presidency and permeating Muhammadan opinion as a consequence of recent events elsewhere; but it is nevertheless a factor in the case which it would not be wise to ignore. Further, the Governor in Council fully appreciates the fact that it is not safe to draw any conclusions, applicable to the whole of India, from the attitude of the Muhammadan community in this Presidency alone. Recent experience shows that causes for excitement which are susceptible of control in this Presidency are more liable to disturb the community elsewhere; and the Bombay Government recognize that the present is not a time when it is desirable to introduce measures which can by any possibility be misunderstood.

9. Moreover, it has to be admitted that the presence every year in the ranks of the departing pilgrims of a very appreciable proportion of persons who either never return to India from the Hedjaz, or return by an entirely different route, introduces another factor of real difficulty in the consideration of the problem. In view of the number of these it is impossible to ignore their case. At the same time any means that could be devised for meeting it, by a system of refunds or otherwise, would create conditions which would facilitate the evasion of the restrictions which the scheme seeks to impose, and would result in the frustration of its essential object. The discussion which has taken place with Messrs. Turner, Morrison and Company's representative has not led to the suggestion of any expedient which could be regarded as satisfactorily surmounting this serious practical difficulty.

10. In the circumstances described in the foregoing paragraphs it now remains to consider what measures, if any, can be taken, in substitution for, or modification of, those advocated in my letter No. 2816 of 11th April 1913, to secure the desired improvement in the conditions of the pilgrim traffic. In the first place I am directed to say, in explanation of the withdrawal of certain of the proposals formulated last April, that those proposals have secured one object, in that they have aroused an interest in a subject which has long suffered from complete public apathy. Further, they have had a most stimulating effect upon the shipping community. Competition for the traffic, though not very effective as yet from rivals of Messrs. Turner, Morrison and Company, has been brisker than was anticipated or has been the case for years past. The forecasting, the result has served to disclose the fact that, whether there be forty of rates and compulsory return tickets or not, the shipping companies catering for the traffic will be compelled, in the ordinary course of business, to supply improved vessels before long, and this circumstance, almost as much as the political factor, has operated to modify this Government's views, not only in respect of the question of making return tickets compulsory, but also as regards the grant of a monopoly to any one shipping firm. In the light of the discussions which have resulted from my letter of the 11th April 1913, and of the experience of the last pilgrim season, I am to say that, provided that certain changes are effected which will be dealt with at length below, and on the understanding that the formation of Haj Committees in all the provinces of India is pressed forward in a manner calculated to secure concrete results, this Government thinks that it will be possible to effect real improvement in the conditions of the pilgrim traffic without resort either to a monopoly or to compulsory return tickets.

11. The objects aimed at in the preceding discussions have been the following :—

(i) The creation of official committees throughout India to organise the pilgrimage from the several provinces.

(ii) Greater efficiency in the actual organization of the pilgrimage at the port of departure.

(iii) The improvement of the conditions in which the voyage from India to the Hedjaz and back is performed.

(iv) The establishment of facilities at Jeddah for the Indian pilgrims on return from the holy places pending re-embarkation for the return journey.

(v) The fixation of the rates of passage money, by means of the grant of a monopoly for a term of years.

12. In regard to the first of the objects specified in the above paragraph I am to invite the attention of the Governor-General in Council to my letter No. 978, dated the 4th February 1913, and to the remarks of the Hon'ble Sir Fazulbhai Currimbhai as reported in the précis of the proceedings at the conference referred to in paragraph 8 above. As pointed out also in paragraph 10 of the memorandum drawn up by Khan Bahadur Syed Shamsuddin Kadri, the organization of businesslike committees at the head-quarters of each province, with, if possible, sub-committees at other important centres and an agency at Jeddah, is an essential preliminary to any real improvement in the lot of Indian pilgrims. The Pilgrim Department in Bombay, consisting of the Commissioner of Police and his staff and the Protector of Pilgrims, is at present able to deal with pilgrims only as they arrive without having the benefit of any reliable preliminary notice of the extent to which its services will be required. It has to meet emergencies on the spur of the moment as best it can, and, when the rush of pilgrims is at its height, it is almost impossible for the department to cope adequately with the work or to deal effectively and promptly with the pilgrims. The formation of efficient committees up-country, in touch with the local Musalman population, would not only render the task of the Bombay authorities easier, by communicating to the latter information as to the numbers of pilgrims and the date of their departure, but would enable the authorities to organize departures in advance and so prevent the congestion which is, at present, so difficult to cope with at the busiest period of the season. The Governor in Council, I am to say, cannot too strongly emphasize his conviction that the organization of such committees is the first essential of any real improvement in the conditions of the pilgrimage to the Hedjaz, and he desires again to urge upon the Government of India the grave importance of pressing upon local Governments the necessity of taking early steps in this matter.

13. The steps necessary to render the actual organization of the pilgrimage more efficient at the port of embarkation may be briefly touched upon here, for the information of the Government of India, though they are matters for detailed arrangement hereafter and can be given effect to without troubling the Governor-in-Council.

At present the pilgrim traffic of Bombay is controlled by four separate departments or agencies :—

(1) The Port Officer, who surveys the pilgrim ship.

(2) The Port Health Officer, who disinfects the ship and baggage and inspects pilgrims and medical stores on the ship.

(3) The Police, who look after the interests of the pilgrims while in Bombay, supervise the sale of tickets, and control the traffic at the time of embarkation ; with the assistance of the Municipality they also arrange for the vaccination of pilgrims.

(4) The Customs Department, who measure the ship, inspect the fittings and count the pilgrims.

Now all these duties except—

(a) the survey of the ship by the Port officer for seaworthiness, and

(b) the disinfection of the ship and baggage and the medical inspection by the Port Health Officer, could equally well, and with a resultant increase in smoothness of working and co-ordination of functions, be carried out by a single authority which should, in the opinion of the Governor in Council, be what has been referred to above as the Pilgrim Department, namely, the Commissioner of Police and his officers and the Protector of Pilgrims.

The Governor in Council has now under consideration specific and detailed proposals for the re-organization on this basis of the work connected with the pilgrim traffic. He is not as yet in a position to pass final orders in respect to them, but, as he approves the general principle of concentration of authority which underlies them, I am to communicate for the information of the Government of India, the main features of the scheme which they embody.

The principal duties which are susceptible of being readily transferred to the police are those under (4) above which are now performed by the Customs Department. Of these the measurement of the ship and the inspection of its fittings have hitherto been carried out by one of the Assistant Collectors and an Inspector, while the scouting of the pilgrims on embarkation has required the services of an Inspector and two European preventive officers. In substitution for this agency, which deals with duties which do not call for any special technical knowledge, it is proposed to create an additional appointment of Deputy Commissioner of Police who would replace the Commissioner of Police as ex-officio, President of the Bombay Haj Committee, and would, subject to the general control of the Commissioner, be responsible for all the work in connection with the pilgrim traffic now performed by the Police and the Customs Departments. Apart from his pilgrim duties this officer would also be placed in charge of the Dock, Water, and Government Dockyard Police, thus being responsible for the whole police administration of the Harbour and Docks, a responsibility which the new dock extensions will in the immediate future very largely increase. With regard to the agency of a more subordinate character required for the execution of the other duties referred to above, it is contemplated to add to the additional staff already proposed for policing the new docks two sergeants who will, during the pilgrim season, be specially detailed for pilgrim work, and at the same time to raise the pay of the present protector of pilgrims, now only Rs. 150 a month, to Rs. 250 a month and place him directly under the orders of the new Deputy Commissioner. There will thus be constituted a single self-contained organization which will be entrusted with the sole responsibility for all those duties connected with the pilgrim traffic which are not of a purely technical character. At the head of this organization will be the new Deputy Commissioner of Police, who, as President of the Haj Committee, will be in close touch which that advisory body and in a position to obtain its advice and guidance in all matters relating to the welfare of the pilgrims and the organization of the pilgrimage generally. The more essentially police duties of this officer will be of such a character as to bring him in constant relation with the interests and forces which most potently influence the conditions of the pilgrim traffic. For the present system of divided responsibility, necessarily involving lack of definition and continuity of policy and of co-ordination of effort, there will thus be substituted management by a single expert and specialized department which, in course of time, as it acquires experience and develops increased efficiency, may be expected to be instrumental in bringing about very material improvements in the arrangements for the transit of the pilgrims through Bombay and their embarkation for Jeddah and in the conditions in which they perform the journey to and from that port.

14. The improvement of the conditions in which the voyage to and from the Hedjes are performed involves alterations in the rules. It was to render possible—or at all events equitable—the exercise of more stringent requirements from shipping companies that the monopoly system with fixity of rates and return passages was recommended in my letter of April 1913. As has already been indicated, there is now (partly as a consequence of those proposals) reason to hope that the desired objects can, to a considerable extent, be attained without resort to either of those measures. The shipping company with whom this Government has been conducting negotiations (Messrs. Turner, Morrison and Company) are committed to the Red Sea traffic. The ships which they took over from the Bombay-Persia Steam Navigation Company are old boats which must, within a very short period, be replaced; and their own interests in retaining the cargo traffic will compel them to replace them with better, larger and faster steamers. These circumstances discount, to a large extent, the value of the undertaking, offered by them in return for the monopoly, to provide a better service. Finally, competition (again, no doubt, in part as a consequence of the proposals formulated by this Government) has been brisker this year. In short, it is quite possible for Government now to exact better ships, more space, and greater speed quite apart from any question of concession to any individual company.

15. The Governor in Council is prepared to recommend immediate action in the following ways:—

(a) The question of the provision of more space per pilgrim on pilgrim ships has come up and will be settled automatically in connection with the deliberations of the Life Boats Committee.

(b) The requirement of better and faster ships can and should be secured by a change in Rule 6 of the Pilgrim Ships Rules which at present prescribe a minimum of only 500 tons.

(c) The provisions of the Protection of Pilgrims Act dealing with the notification by the shipping companies of the dates of sailing of their ships require to be strengthened. A definite obligation should be imposed on the companies to despatch their ships on the dates notified. The rules under the Pilgrim Ships Act dealing with certain matters which affect the interests, health and convenience of the pilgrims should be made more effective and added to in some respects.

The development of shipping, coupled with the reasons advanced in paragraph 14 ante justifies the raising of the minimum of size and speed which was fixed nearly twenty years ago, and the Governor in Council is advised that it is possible and legitimate immediately to raise the minimum tonnage from 500 to 2,000 with a warning that after 5 years it will be further raised to 2,500. I am to forward, as an indication of the reasonableness of this requirement, copyof a statement which His Excellency in Council has caused to be prepared, of the ships recently engaged in the traffic which shows that, of 24 ships, only 9 were below this standard.

It has not escaped attention that an alteration of the rules in the direction of requiring a higher standard in respect to speed and tonnage may be made the pretext upon which shipowners will endeavour to charge higher rates of passage money; and some of the leaders of the Muhammadan community in Bombay have suggested that, if there is good grounds to apprehend that this will be the result, the minimum, at all events for tonnage, should be placed rather lower. Enquiries made from sources other than the shipping companies lead the Governor in Council to the belief that this fear is not well grounded and that an increase in the minimum tonnage requirement to 2,000, though it may have the effect of a protest on the part of shipowners, will, owing to competition, fail to affect the price of tickets in any way. As already indicated, few of the ships engaged in the traffic have a lower tonnage, and these are being rapidly replaced.

As regards speed, rule 4 of the Pilgrim Ships Rules prescribes a minimum speed as well as size for ships sailing in the monsoon. The requirements as regards speed are as anticipated and inadequate as those regarding size. There are difficulties and drawbacks in the way of requiring ships to be certified as "capable" of steaming so many knots. In practice they are often found to be capable of doing so only for a few hours. His Excellency in Council is advised that the most satisfactory form in which to place this requirement is to demand that a vessel shall contract to reach Aden in so many hours and to require a deposit to be made or a bond to be given for the fulfilment of the contract.

With regard to (c) I am to invite attention to my letter No. 3098 of today's date, with which certain specific proposals for the amendment of the Act and Rules above referred to in the direction indicated are being submitted for the approval of the Government of India. It is believed that the provisions enacted by these amendments will, among other things, introduce a very material improvement in the conditions under which the pilgrims purchase their passage tickets and effect their actual departure by sea for Jeddah. The present state of the law admits of the shipping companies' advertising with impunity sailings which they know they cannot possibly adhere to and rates of passage money which they have no intention of accepting if, by thus inducing a rush of applications, they are enabled subsequently to raise them. These unscrupulous manœuvres on the part of the companies are a source of intense harrassment and annoyance to the pilgrims and of serious anxiety and embarrassment to the authorities charged with their care and supervision during their stay in the port of departure.

16. The fourth of the objects specified in paragraph 11 above, namely, the establishment of facilities at Jeddah, is dependent for its efficient realization upon the creation of the Haj Committees dealt with in paragraph 12. Under present conditions the Consul at Jeddah is the only effective agent for watching over the interests and welfare of pilgrims disembarking and re-embarking. He does what is possible to secure for them fair treatment when once they are ashore and to facilitate their departure. But in the numerous cases which annually occur of pilgrims reaching Jeddah in a destitute condition on the return journey he is practically unable to do more than represent their case, as last year, to the Government of India or of Bombay. He has no general fund at his disposal for their repatriation.

It was this aspect of the case which drove the Government of Bombay, in the interests of the credit of the Mussalmans of the Indian Empire, to propose a system of compulsory return tickets; and it is this problem for which I am now to propose an alternative solution.

It is believed that certain charitable Mussalmans occasionally proceed to Jeddah partly, if not mainly, for the purpose of helping indigent pilgrims, not only with funds, but also with advice and direction. Such unorganized charity can of itself do but little, but it seems to point out a direction in which proper organization can convert casual relief into a systematic alleviation of a growing scandal. With this end in view the Governor in Council proposes that there should be established, at Jeddah, a British Indian Agency affiliated to (or rather emanating from) the Bombay Haj Committee, and working in conjunction with the British Consul, for the express purpose of effecting the repatriation annually of indigent pilgrims at the close of the pilgrim season. The Mussalman community in Bombay recognize the grave discredit, which is reflected on all Indian Mussalmans by the recurring scandal. They have shown, however, that there are difficulties in the way of, and strong opposition to, a system of return tickets. There is reason to believe that they realise (and are willing to help in discharging) the responsibility of the community for co-operating with Government in devising and financing measures of relief. Funds, or rather a fund, will be necessary to render efficient the working of the proposed British Indian Agency; and His Excellency in Council desires to suggest, for the consideration of the Government of India, that such fund shall be formed by a non-recurring grant from Imperial revenues not to exceed, at present, Rs. one lakh, conditional upon the Mussalman community throughout India raising at least an equal sum. It may reasonably be hoped that the community will be able to raise a sum very largely in excess of a lakh; but even assuming, for a moment, that it failed to respond generously, a Repatriation Fund of two lakhs, yielding an income of Rs 8,000 approximately would, to a very large extent, solve the problem. This fund would be administered primarily by the Haj Committee in Bombay, whose annual grant, varying according to the necessities of the case, would be disbursed by the Jeddah British Indian Agency under the control of the British Consul. It is possible that the Bombay Haj Committee acting through the proposed Pilgrim Department could successfully arrange each year with steamship companies for the carriage of destitute pilgrims at special rates; but it is in any event quite certain that an organization of the character described, working in conjunction with a local committee in Jeddah controlled by the British Consul, and possessed of a nucleus fund of the character described, would be in a strong position to end the present unsatisfactory condition of affairs; and I am to express the hope that the Government of India will view the matter favourably and see their way to make a grant of one lakh of rupees towards the fund, on the condition that the Mussalman community collect at least one lakh of rupees within a reasonable period.

I am to add that the Governor in Council has not overlooked the probability that, as soon as it is known that a Repatriation Fund exists, many pilgrims who could really afford the return ticket will represent themselves as being indigent. It is, however, hoped that the Consul, by associating with himself certain of the respectable Indians, whether permanently or only temporarily resident in Jeddah, will be able to acquire a knowledge of the circumstances of such persons, so as to be in position to resist such claims when not genuine. At all events the Governor in Council thinks the experiment to be well worth a trial and has ascertained that, pending the discovery of a better method, the Bombay leaders of the Mussalman community concur in this view.

17. The abandonment of the proposed system of compulsory return tickets and the substitution of the proposals detailed in the foregoing paragraphs still leave it desirable to encourage as far as practicable the purchase by pilgrims of return tickets; and for this reason the Governor in Council considers that it should be made a rule that pilgrims who desire to purchase a return ticket shall be entitled to receive one at a certain fixed ratio in excess of the cost of the single ticket.

In the course of the negotiations with Messrs. Turner, Morrison and Company on the subject of the fixity of maximum rates of passage money, single and return, that firm expressed its willingness to have the following rates fixed. (It should be explained that their proposal was made on the assumption that they should have a monopoly of the traffic):—

	Single ticket.	Return ticket.
	Rs.	Rs.
(a) From 26th September to 15th October	120	150
(b) ,, 27th August to 25th September	100	130
(c) ,, 1st August to 26th August	90	120
(d) Before 1st August	75	100

It will be seen that the proposed rates contemplated conveying pilgrims on the return journey (as return tickets) at rates only 25 per cent in excess of the single ticket; and the Government of Bombay propose that the rule should fix this rate, coupled with a guarantee to refund the excess in the event of the pilgrim dying or failing to utilize it. The latter provision will require safeguards, and the guarantee would be enforced only on a representation certified to by the Haj Committee.

18. The attainment of the fifth object (paragraph 11 ante) originally aimed at by this Government must, in the opinion of His Excellency in Council, be foregone. He does not disguise from himself that the fixation of passage rates was, in many ways, the most important object and the one which would have benefited the pilgrims more materially than any other. The Muhammadan community, as represented by their leaders, has, in the opinion of the Bombay Government, deliberately preferred to sacrifice a great material boon to the pilgrims for the sake of a sentiment. It may be doubted whether any of the benefits aimed at by the present alternative proposal will, in the eyes of the pilgrims, be of the value which fixed fares and certainty of return would have possessed for them; and the Governor in Council has therefore cut of deference to the views expressed, abandoned, with reluctance, the monopoly proposals coupled with the fixing of passage rates.

19. It will be convenient to summarise here the substance of the proposals contained in this letter.

They are, briefly stated, as follows:—

1. The creation of an agency, embracing every local centre from which pilgrims make their departure, for the proper control and organization, in India, of the pilgrimage. This agency will consist of—

(a) the present Bombay Haj Committee working as a Board of advice to the executive official referred to in proposal II and controlling the Repatriation Fund referred to in proposal IV.

(b) a Provincial Haj Committee (assisted, where necessary, by local sub-committees) constituted for each province in India on the lines of the organized Bombay Committee; such Provincial Committees to be in close communication with the Bombay Committee for the purpose of keeping the latter informed as to the numbers and dates of departure of pilgrims leaving from their respective areas.

II. The constitution of a re-organised Pilgrim Department under a Deputy Commissioner of Police which will discharge the functions connected with the arrangements for the embarkation and transport of pilgrims which are now divided between the Police and the Customs authorities, the object in view being to secure greater efficiency in the actual organization of the pilgrimage at the port of departure.

III. The amendment of the Pilgrim Ships Act, the Protection of Pilgrims Act and the rules under the former enactment with a view to the improvement of the conditions in which the pilgrims effect their departure from India and perform their voyage to Jeddah and back; these amendments being in the direction of—

(a) the prescription of a higher minimum of space per pilgrim on board ship,

(b) the raising of the minimum of tonnage for pilgrim ships from 500 to 2,000, and eventually 2,500, tons,

(c) the fixing for each pilgrim of a contract time limit for the voyage from the port of departure to Aden, excess over which will render the shipping company liable to the forfeiture of a deposit previously exacted,

(d) the strengthening of the provisions with regard to the notification of the date of sailing of pilgrim ships, and the imposition on the shipping companies of a definite obligation to despatch their ships on the date notified,

(e) the introduction of improvements in certain matters affecting the health and convenience of the pilgrims:

IV With a view to the establishment of improved facilities for securing the return of Indian pilgrims from Jeddah :—

(a) the constitution at that port of a British Indian Agency of the Bombay Haj Committee working in conjunction with the British Consul ;

(b) the organization of a Repatriation Fund composed of subscriptions collected from the Muhammadan community in all parts of India and of an Imperial non-recurring grant, not exceeding one lakh, equal to the total amount thus collected, the latter grant to be advanced immediately on the understanding that the equivalent amount will be subscribed within a reasonable time ;

(c) the administration of this fund by the Bombay Haj Committee the allotments made from time to time from its proceeds being disbursed by the Agency at Jeddah under the supervision of the British Consul ;

(d) the imposition on the shipping companies of an obligation to issue, on demand by pilgrims, return tickets at a cost representing an excess of not more than 25 per cent. over the cost of the single ticket, such return tickets carrying a guarantee of the refund of the excess in the event, which would be certified to by the Haj Committee, of the death of the holder or the non-utilization of the return half.

20 In conclusion I am to observe that the proposals herein put forward have been discussed with prominent leaders of the Muhammadan community in the Bombay Presidency and, subject to the remarks contained in paragraphs 15 and 16, meet with general acceptance. These gentlemen also expressed confidence that a far larger sum than one lakh of rupees can be collected from the Mussalmans throughout India, and suggested that no limit should be placed upon the amount up to which (vide paragraph 16) the Government of India would contribute an equivalent. I am to say, however, that while the repatriation experiment is under trial, it is the opinion of the Governor in Council that the State contribution should have a fixed limit, though it is to be hoped that private contributions by wealthy Mussalmans will greatly exceed that limit.

Synopsis of the opinions of Muhammadan anjumans, associations, communities and individuals in the Bombay Presidency regarding the proposals in connexion with the Haj pilgrimage formulated in the Bombay Government's letter to the Government of India, No. 2896, dated the 4th April 1913.

Serial number.	Anjuman, association, community or individual consulted.	Gist of the opinions expressed.
		BOMBAY.
1	The Haj Committee, Bombay.	It would be a hardship to compel the Hajis to purchase return tickets, as some of them are very poor and many of them do not return by the sea route. They either return by different overland routes or remain in the holy land for a long time, while a few of them pass the rest of their lives there. Those who do not return by the sea route are entitled to a refund on the return half of their tickets, but it would not be an easy thing for them in all cases to get it, a fact which would give occasion to much discontent. Moreover, there is a great probability of the Hajis losing the return halves of their tickets. No monopoly should be given to any particular steamship company as it is inadvisable to put a check upon competition in such an important branch of the trade as the pilgrim traffic. Competition in this traffic would be healthy and would be beneficial to the Hajis.
2	Views of the following individual members of the Haj Committee, Bombay:— (1) Sulaman Kassim Haji Mitha, Esq., J.P. (2) Haji Yusuf Haji Ismail Subhani, J.P. (3) Haji Sulaman Abdul Wahed, J.P. (4) Abdul Kader Khatkhatay, Esq., J.P., B.A., LL.B. (5) Mirza Mahomed Shirazi, J.P. (6) K. B. Abdur Rehman Rudwani, Esq., J.P. (7) Mia Mahomed Haji Jan Mahomed Chotani, J.P.	A system of compulsory return tickets is not advisable as the majority of the pilgrims belong to the poorer section of the community, and those who do not return to India after the pilgrimage will be put to loss. The same will be the case with those who wish to visit Bagdad and return viâ Bussorah, or who visit Jerusalem and return viâ Port Said. Such a system would further stand in the way of pilgrims wishing a speedy return as they would not have the liberty to avail themselves of the first boat that sails soon after the pilgrimage is over. Pilgrims may go out at the same time but cannot be expected to return all at one time. In the event of its being decided to establish a system of compulsory return tickets a monopoly should not be given to any particular shipping company— (a) Ship owners should be invited to compete for a contract for five years terminable on the part of Government at one year's notice. This would lead to cheaper rates and better terms. Preference should be given to the company whose ships are best equipped and whose rates are lowest; (b) pilgrims should be given the option of purchasing return or single tickets, the rates of which should be fixed. In the case of the former, the charge should not exceed Rs. 120, or a maximum rate of Rs. 100 should be charged throughout the season;

		(c) each pilgrim who purchases a return ticket should receive his coupon in triplicate, one coupon should be with him, another lodged with the Protector of Pilgrims and the third forwarded to the British Consul at Jeddah, so that on his return journey he may present the coupon and receive a ticket for the return voyage. Pilgrims who wish to stay at Jeddah or visit other places should, on presentation of the coupon to the British Consul at Jeddah, who would ascertain their intentions on that account, get a refund of their money which should be either half of the actual sum paid or half the amount of the maximum rate chargeable;
		(d) the period of return passage should be extended beyond 3½ months
3	The Loyal Muslim Association, Bombay.	Have passed a resolution approving of the system of compulsory return tickets for pilgrims to the Hedjaz.
4	Anjuman-i-Za-ul-Islam, Bombay.	Tenders should be called for from different shipping companies, fixing Rs 100 as the maximum rate for the double journey. The fixed rate should be uniform for all periods of the Haj season. The ports of Calcutta and Chittagong should be thrown open to pilgrims This would give a certain amount of relief to the Bombay Presidency and would also be a convenience to pilgrims resident in the Bengal and Madras Presidencies. In lieu of return tickets, pilgrims should be allowed to deposit money for the return journey in a bank to the credit of the Haj Committee. The period of return to India should be extended to four months, and pilgrims who wish to settle out of India should, provided they give four months' notice of their intention to do so, be entitled to have the amount of their deposit sent to them at their own cost. In cases of death the refunds should be payable to the heirs, and where no claim is made within a year the money should be paid into the "Poor Pilgrim Fund" Three instead of two ships should be despatched from Karachi and the dates of sailing should cover the "Ramzan Id" as many pilgrims leave after that festival.
5	Anjuman-Islam, Bombay.	A monopoly of the pilgrim traffic should not be given to any particular shipping company.
6	The Young Men's Muhammadan Association, Bombay.	A monopoly should not be given to a single shipping company, but tenders should be invited. The rates should be fixed for single tickets each way from Bombay to Jeddah and vice versâ, subject to a maximum of Rs. 40 to Rs. 50 at any period of the pilgrim season.
7	Mr M. E. Muckba, one of the leading members of the Muhammadan community of Bombay	A system of compulsory return tickets is desirable, but the rates should as far as possible be lowered.
8	The Honorable Moulvi Rafi-ud-din Ahmad, Bar.-at-law	A five-year monopoly should not be given to any one shipping company. The proposal is bad in principle and calculated to discourage competition in the pilgrim traffic. Return tickets should not be made compulsory as about a fourth of the pilgrims do not return to India at all, and it has always been a difficult matter to ascertain their heirs.

Serial number.	Anjuman, association community or individual consulted.	Gist of the opinions expressed.
		Such a system cannot altogether prevent indigent pilgrims from visiting the Hedjaz though it may reduce their number to a certain extent.
		In the present state of Muhammadan feeling in India it would be most impolitic as well as unwise for the Government to adopt any measure, however humanitarian, which is likely to be looked upon with suspicion by the ignorant and indigent Muhammadan public, especially if the same savours of religious interference.
		NORTHERN DIVISION.
		Ahmedabad District.
9	Anjuman-i-Islam, Ahmedabad.	The system of compulsory return tickets should first be given a trial for one year only.
		The company should issue tickets at half rates to poor pilgrims up to 10 per cent. of the total number of pilgrims carried.
		Broach District.
10	Leading men of the Mussalman communities of Broach.	There is no objection to the introduction of a compulsory return ticket system, but if a monopoly is to be given to a particular company, the latter should provide a sufficient number of steamers plying and the charge should not exceed Rs 60 at the most.
		The period allowed for return to India should be extended to one year.
		As an alternative scheme it is proposed that pilgrims should be required to deposit their return fare with a Jeddah banker, arrangements being made to ensure that they do not get their money back until they actually return to Jeddah for the return voyage. With regard to depositing the amount with the British Consul at Jeddah it is contended that ignorance of the local language would be a great difficulty and that the many formalities incidental to obtaining payments from a Government department would cause much trouble and inconvenience to pilgrims.
	Leaders of Anjuman and also leading Mussalmans of both Broach and Ankleshwar talukas.	The rates proposed for the return tickets are too high. A system of competition is suggested. As an alternative it is proposed that the pilgrims should be required to deposit Rs 60 with the Commissioner of Police, Bombay, or with the British Consul at Jeddah as a guarantee of their ability to return to India. The period of return allowed under the scheme should be extended.
		Kaira District.
11	Leading Muhammadans of Kaira district.	All are in favour of the scheme but consider that the rates proposed are excessive. The period for which return tickets will be in force should be extended to six months. The company should be required to refund the value of the unused return halves either to Government or to the heirs of the original purchasers. If the heir does not claim the amount, the sum should be utilised for pilgrim relief.

		Panch Mahals District.
12	Leaders of the different sects of Muhammadans of Panch Mahals.	Pilgrims desiring to stay at the holy places of pilgrimage longer than the period allowed by the proposed system should be exempted from the obligation of taking a return ticket and should be allowed to purchase single tickets each way. The maximum rates proposed should be reduced by one half. The refund on unused return halves of tickets should be half the cost of the full return tickets instead of Rs. 50 in all cases as proposed. Pilgrims intending to go to Madina usually prefer the route viâ Amba, it being shorter and more convenient. An obligation should therefore be imposed on the shipping company to carry pilgrims from Bombay to Amba and back.
		Surat District.
13	Anjoman and leading Muhammadans of the Surat district.	The Anjuman is opposed to the proposals but merely on the general ground that the restrictions which they involve would tend to discourage Mohammadans from undertaking the pilgrimage. Individual Muhammadans are, however, in favour of the proposals. The Bohra High Priest of Surat is of opinion that arrangements are necessary for Hajis who may wish to remain at Mecca for longer than the prescribed three and a half months, and that there should, therefore, be an extension of the period of return by one month. He also urges that the rates to be fixed should involve no substantial increase over the average rates hitherto paid by the pilgrims.
		Thana District.
14	Mussalmans of Kalyan and Bhiwndi and the Anjumans of the latter place.	Are in favour of the Government proposals.
		CENTRAL DIVISION.
		Ahmednagar District.
15	Anjumans and leading members of the Muhammadan community at Ahmednagar.	Are in favour of the Government proposals.
		West Khandesh District.
16	Mussalman Anjumans and Associations and some of the Bohras in the district of West Khandesh.	There is a consensus of opinion that the issue of return tickets should be made compulsory not only for the voyage to the Hadjaz but also as regards the railway journey in India between the pilgrims' homes and the port of embarkation. The fares proposed are rather high. Provision should be made to return some portion of the passage money to those pilgrims who do not return by the same route. The guarantee for the return journey should be for six months, and pilgrims should be allowed to produce the return vouchers at Jeddah within three months of the last date of the Hej.

		In the case of pilgrims who propose to live in the Hedjaz for a long time, the purchase of return tickets should not be insisted upon, but they should be given the option of having return tickets available for two years subject to a refund in case of death or non-return or the return tickets should be made transferable.
		East Khandesh District.
17	Leading members of the Muhammadan community of East Khandesh district.	Are unanimously in favour of the Government proposals.
		Nasik District.
18	Musalmans of Nasik ..	Are entirely in favour of the Government proposals
	Musalmans of Malegaon ..	Are opposed to the proposals on the ground that as the Haj is a religious matter and as the Musalmans are much attached to their sacred places, they should be allowed the same liberty of access to them as before.
		Poona District.
19	Musalman Anjumans, Associations and leading Muhammadans of Poona district.	All are in favour of the compulsory return ticket system but consider that proper arrangements should be made for the disbursement to the heirs of the cost of the return ticket in the event of the death of a pilgrim No monopoly should be given to any particular company, but tenders should be invited every year. Government should fix the rates of the passage money. The return tickets should be transferable The period of three and a half months proposed for the return journey should be extended to five months.
		Satara District
20	Anjumans of Wai, Satara district.	Are in favour of the Government proposals
		Sholapur District.
21	District Moslem League, Sholapur.	Have unanimously passed a resolution recording the opinion that the return tickets system is not desirable unless the fares for passages to and from Jeddah are fixed Government should fix a maximum rate for the voyage to and from Jeddah. It should be made compulsory for every pilgrim to deposit a sum sufficient to cover the expenses for the return journey.
22	Leading individual members of the Muhammadan community in the Sholapur district.	Are in favour of the arrangements proposed by Government.
		SOUTHERN DIVISION.
		Belgaum District.
23	Leading Muhammadan members of Belgaum taluka.	Express their readiness to agree to whatever opinion may be given by the Anjumans or Associations in the City of Bombay and remember that the maximum rates proposed by Government should be reduced. Claimants for refunds on return tickets should be paid merely on a sworn declaration with sureties, without being compelled to produce the return vouchers.

	Muhammadans of Chikodi taluka.
	Muhammadans of Athni taluka.
	Muhammadans of Gokak taluks.	Are opposed to the system of compulsory return tickets as some pilgrims depend on charity for their return voyage.
		Bijapur District.
24	Anjuman-i-Islam, Bijapur, and the Muhammadans of the Bijapur and other talukas in the district.	Are all generally in favour of the proposed arrangements but are of opinion that the rate is too high and urge that it should be fixed at Rs. 60.
	Muhammadans of the Badami taluka.	Are not in favour of the Government proposals as they think that the rates proposed are quite prohibitive to the poorer pilgrims who generally make up their passage money by begging.
		Dharwar District.
25	Nawab of Savanur and certain leading Muhammadan gentlemen of the talukas of Dharwar, Ranebennur and Bankapur.	Are all generally in favour of the Government proposals but consider that the period of three and a half months for which the return ticket is available should be extended to four months. The return ticket should be issued (registered) to pilgrims by name so as to ensure a return passage even in the event of the loss of the ticket.
26	Mr. Nizamuddin Ahmad Fouzdar, a councillor of the Ranebennur Municipality.	Suggests that the period of two months within which the return voucher is to be presented by a pilgrim at Jeddah should be extended to at least four months. Provision should be made for the grant of refunds to those who overstay the period of the return journey owing to sickness or other reasons. The proposed rates are high and should be reduced by 20 per cent.
		Kanara District.
27	Leading individual members of the Muhammadan community of the Karwar taluka.	Are in favour of the Government proposals.
	Leading individual members of the Muhammadan community of the Ankola taluka.	Are in favour of the Government proposals, but consider that the rates should be lowered.
	Leading individual members of the Muhammadan community of the Kumta taluka.	The system of return tickets will be disadvantageous to those pilgrims who go to the Hadjaz with the intention of staying there for a year or two. The rate proposed is too high. The maximum rate should be fixed at Rs. 100. Pilgrims should be insisted on to deposit money sufficient for the purchase of a return ticket.
		There should be no limit of time within which pilgrims should return.
	Leading individual members of the Muhammadan community of the Honavar taluka.	Have no objection to the Government proposals.
	Leading individual members of the Muhammadan community of the Sirsi taluka.

	Leading individual members of the Muhammadan community of the Haliyal taluka.
	Leading individual members of the Muhammadan community of the Bhatkal taluka.	The supply of free tickets for the return journey to pilgrims in really indigent circumstances should be made a condition of the agreement with the steamship company; otherwise pilgrims should be exempted from the obligation to purchase return tickets.
	Leading individual members of the Muhammadan community of the Siddapur taluka.	Are of opinion that though the object of the scheme is a good one, still in the interests of the Moslem pilgrims it appears undesirable to enforce it as many of them go to the Hedjaz with the intention of settling down there.
		Kolába District.
28	Mussalmans of Kolaba district.	Are generally in favour of the Government proposals.
		Ratnágiri District.
29	Mussalman Anjamans and Associations and the leading members of the Muhammadan community in the district.	Are in favour of the Government proposals but consider the rates of passage money to be excessive.
		SIND.
		Hyderabad District.
30	Muhammadan Anjumans and Associations and Muhammadans generally in the district.	Opinion is divided as the subject, some giving approval to the proposal with a rider to the effect that the fare should be reduced and a better steamship service employed, and others opposing it on the ground that as many pilgrims die in the Hedjaz the money spent on the return tickets will be wasted.
	Educated and wealthy classes of Muhammadans in the district.	Are in favour of the Government proposals.
		Karachi District.
31	Shaikh Wulliji Ebrahimji, member of the Haj Committee and a leader of the Borah community, Karachi	The period for the return journey should be extended to three months as a large majority of pilgrims go to visit Medina and other holy places after the Haj and it will not be possible for them to present the return tickets at Jeddah within two months as proposed.
		Provision to be made for the refund of return passage to the relations or friends of the deceased on production from the Sheriff of Mecca or Medina of a certificate of death countersigned by the British Vice-Consul at Jeddah.
		The rates of passages proposed by Government should be reduced.
		Passage rates for 1st and 2nd class passengers should also be fixed.
32	Khan Saheb S. G. Haji, Deputy Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, Sind.	Government should provide suitable facilities for the prompt refund of the money paid for the return passage to those Hajis who do not return by the Red Sea route or to the heirs of those who die while on the outward journey to the Hedjaz or on the return journey.

Synopsis of the opinions of Muhammadan anjumans, associations, communities, etc.—contd.

Serial number.	Anjuman, association, community or individual consulted	Gist of the opinions expressed.
33	Dêst Muhammad Tokhi, a member of the Haj Committee, head of the Pathan community and agent to His Highness the Amir of Afghanistan.	Opposes the system of compulsory return tickets as he considers that half the number of pilgrims going to the Hedjaz are poor and that it will be very difficult for those to pay at once for the return ticket as they have to labour and beg at Mecca for the return fare. Several pilgrims go viâ Karachi or Bombay but return viâ another route Arrangements should be made for the sailing of pilgrim ships from Karachi also.
34	Haji Abdullah Haroon, member of the Haj Committee and leader of the Memon community.	Opposes the system of compulsory return tickets on the ground that the Mussalmans of India as a whole are not so advanced as to realize the utility of the proposal. In the event of it being decided to establish the system he suggests— (1) The company should provide passages for all persons who present themselves at the time of sailing and should not be permitted at any time to decline to take passengers for want of steamers. (2) The proposed rates of fare are too high. There should be competition. (3) Maximum fares for 1st and 2nd class passengers should be fixed (4) The period of return should be extended. (5) All moneys refunded on unused return tickets should be utilised for pilgrim relief. (6) The proposed two trips from Karachi are not sufficient. The company should provide an exclusive vessel at Karachi for 100 or more passengers.
35	Anjuman Zia-ul-Islam, Karachi.	The proposed system of compulsory return tickets would prove an additional hardship to pilgrims going to the Hedjaz. The period allowed for the return journey is too short. The procedure proposed for the refund of moneys on unused tickets is tedious. The passage rate proposed is exorbitant. The Association considers that the introduction of a system of compulsory return tickets, though intended to minimize the existing grievance of the Muslim community, would, it is feared, be viewed by the illiterate masses as an interference with the religious duties of Muhammadans. The maintenance by the authorities of a strict watch on intending pilgrims with a view to ascertaining whether they have sufficient means for their return journey will obviate the difficulties experienced.
36	Anjuman Sunat-wal Jamat, Karachi.	Are opposed to the Government proposals.
37	Sind Muhammadan Association.	The proposed measures would seriously hamper the pilgrim traffic and cause the pilgrims great inconvenience and difficulties instead of affording them protection. In the opinion of the Association the only practicable solution would be to require all the steamship companies to desist from forming a ring and thus unreasonably raising the rates. The steamship companies should be required to carry a certain percentage of poor pilgrims free of charge in any steamer.

Serial number.	Anjuman, association, community or individual consulted.	Gist of the opinions expressed.
38	The Protector of Pilgrims, Karachi.	A voluntary return ticket system should be given a trial for two years and the pilgrims should be induced to purchase return tickets. The Protector suggests that a monopoly should be granted to a single shipping company for two years, that the rates for different classes of tickets (1st class, 2nd class, saloon, floor, poop and deck) should be fixed, and that a reduction of one-fourth of the combined outward and return fares should be allowed on return tickets. Rates should be based on the average rates that actually prevailed in Bombay during corresponding periods of the last five years. No brokers to be licensed. The period of the return journey should be extended to four months, and ships for Jeddah should leave within a given number of days after the advertised date of sailing. Refunds on unused return tickets should be allowed. Four ships at least should be despatched from Karachi, and the company should sell tickets at that port also.
		Sukkur District.
39	Muhammadan Anjumans in the District of Sukkur.	Opinions are divided. The objections against the proposals to grant monopoly, are that the fares are extremely heavy, that competition is desirable, and that the period allowed for the return journey is too short. Some suggest that pilgrims desirous of making a prolonged stay in the Hedjaz should be allowed to buy single tickets or to claim at Jeddah a refund of half the amount at the end of the season. Half the amount of the full fare should be refunded on the return half, and not Rs. 50 only. Children under 12 should pay half fares only, and children under 4, quarter fares.
		Larkana District.
40	Muhammadan Zamindars, Anjumans and chief Musalman officials of the district.	They are generally in favour of the Government proposals, but consider that very great discontent will be caused among the poorer classes if the cheap passage rates which have recently prevailed are abolished and a Government monopoly is granted which would result in an enhancement in the rates. They suggest that the rates should be inclusive of charges for boat hire between the ship and the shore and for quarantine charges at Camaran. The period of two months after the last date of the Haj is not sufficient for the return journey. Those who decide to stay longer should be entitled to claim a refund on their return fares. Pilgrims should be permitted before they leave home to name the person to whom refund is to be made in the event of their death. A fixed period should be named at the end of which refunds should be claimable if nothing has been heard of the pilgrims. The refund should be limited to Rs. 50. Those who have paid at the higher rates should be entitled to the refund of a full half of the fares charged. Unclaimed return fare refunds should be credited to a fund for the assistance of poor pilgrims. Ships starting from Karachi should not go to Bombay; Chittagong and Calcutta should be thrown open to the pilgrim traffic.
		Thar and Parkar District.
41	Leading Muhammadans in the district.	Are in favour of the Government proposals.

		Nawabshah District.
42	Muhammadan Zamindars of the Nasrat Taluka.	Are in favour of the proposals, but consider that the proposed fares should be reduced by one-half and that arrangements should be made for refunds in cases where for any reason the return halves of tickets have not been used. If Government fix the fares they should strictly limit the number of pilgrims to be carried on each ship, and should require that proper arrangements be made for the zenana pilgrims.
	Muhammadans of the Sakrand Taluka	Are in favour of the proposals, but consider that refunds should be allowed in the case of pilgrims wishing to stay in Arabia for a period longer than the one suggested.
	Muhammadans of the Shahdadpur Taluka.	The rates should be reduced.
	Muhammadans of Nawabshro.	Oppose the proposals as they consider that it would prevent many poor Muhammadans who now depend on charity from performing the Haj.
	Muhammadans of the Sinjhoro Taluka.	Are in favour of the Government proposals.
	Muhammadans of Kandiaro	The proposal would prevent many poor Muhammadans from performing the Haj. The system of return tickets would be unfair to the heirs of the considerable number of Hajis who die in Arabia. It is undesirable that any one company should have a monopoly of the pilgrim traffic. The time allowed for the return journey should be five months at least.
		Upper Sind Frontier District.
43	Leading Muhammadan Zamindars in the district.	Are generally in favour of the proposed arrangements, but consider that the fares proposed are too high.
		ADEN.
44	Leading Muhammadans of Aden.	Compulsory return tickets and fixed fares are desirable for the pilgrim traffic from Aden to Jeddah. Rates should also be fixed for the voyage from Aden to Jeddah. The period allowed for the return journey should be extended to four months.

The Muhammadans of Chhota Udepur are opposed to fares being fixed and to a monopoly being given to any one company. The Balasinor Muhammadans point out that a Haji can ordinarily go to Jeddah at a cost of Rs. 15 to Rs. 30. Provision should be made for extending the period of return in the case of those pilgrims who may be desirous of staying in the Hedjaz longer.

	Leading members of the Muhammadan community of Ramdrug.	It is desirable that maximum rates should be fixed but those mentioned in the provisional agreement with Messrs. Turner, Morrison and Company are too high. They should be moderate and such as could be paid by the middle class and poor people who form the majority of those who go to the Hedjaz. A system of compulsory return tickets should be introduced, but exceptions should be made in the case of those who do not wish to return at all or who intend to stay a longer time in the Hedjaz. It is neither necessary nor desirable to give a monopoly to one company, though the rates may be fixed.

Notes of an informal conference held on the 31st July 1913 at the Council Hall in Poona for the purpose of considering the proposals in connexion with the Haj pilgrimage formulated in the Bombay Government's letter to the Government of India, No. 2896, dated the 11th April 1913.

PRESENT

The Hon'ble Mr. Claude Hill, C.S.I., C.I.E., Chairman.
The Hon'ble Sir Ibrahim Rahimtoola, K.C.I.E.
The Hon'ble Sardar Syed Ali El Edroos.
The Hon'ble Moulvi Saifuddin Ahmad.
The Hon'ble Mr Ghulam Hussain Hidayatullah.
The Hon'ble Sir Fazulbhoy Currimbhoy, C.I.E.
The Secretary to Government, General Department.

The Hon'ble Mr. Hill opened the proceedings by reciting the conditions, set forth in paragraph 4 of their letter to the Government of India, on which the Bombay Government had proposed that the arrangements for the conveyance of pilgrims between India and Jeddah should be entrusted to Messrs Turner, Morrison and Company. He then referred in some detail to the opinions which had been elicited from the various individuals and associations consulted throughout the Presidency, and drew attention to their generally favourable character and the absence of any widespread or strong opposition to the two essential features of the scheme, namely, the grant for a term of years of a monopoly of the pilgrim traffic to a single shipping firm, and the institution of a system of compulsory return tickets. Where exception had been taken to the scheme the points of objection practically resolved themselves into three, namely—

(1) that the passage rates proposed were excessive;

(2) that the period within which a return passage could be claimed was too short;

(3) that the scheme made no provision for the large number of pilgrims who had no intention of returning to their homes or who proposed to make a prolonged stay in the Hedjaz or to return home overland.

2. With reference to (1) he observed that, in the total absence of other competitors in the field, the company in question were in a very strong position to lay down their own terms, and that in any case the objection did not take into account the proposed improvement of the conditions of the service which the terms of the contract contemplated.

3. As regards (2) he pointed out that the clause referred to did not go further than to stipulate that the presentation of a return ticket within two months of the last day of the Haj should be a condition to securing a passage within 3½ months from that date, and did not empower the company to refuse altogether to give a return passage to the holder of a ticket presented after the expiry of the prescribed period. He thought that the company might be asked, subject to an absolute limit of two years, to guarantee, in the case of pilgrims presenting return tickets after the expiration of the prescribed two months, a return passage within two months of the date of such presentation, or, in the alternative, to pay an indemnity of Rs. 30 on each ticket.

4. As regards (3) he considered that the number of pilgrims who did not return by sea was largely made up of pilgrims from Central Asia, and that to meet the objection in the case of Indian pilgrims an arrangement might be devised for refunding a sum of Rs. 50, representing the return half of the ticket on a declaration being made by the holder before the Jeddah consular authorities that he had no intention of returning to India.

5. After some discussion as to the value of the opinions collected and the mode of their collection Mr. Hill pointed out that the really essential question regarding which he now desired to have the opinion of the members of the conference was whether or not it was desirable to institute a system of compulsory return tickets. If it were once admitted that the institution of such a system was desirable, then the necessity for some such arrangement as that outlined must be conceded, and it would only remain to consider its details. He proposed, therefore, to invite seriatim the several members present to state their precise objections to a system of compulsory return tickets.

6. In response to this invitation Sir Ibrahim Rahimtoola stated that the principal objection to the proposal arose from the very large proportion of pilgrims who either do not return to India at all or who return by another route. This proportion he estimated at 16,000 annually. Its extent could be judged from the very large sums which accrued by the lapse of return railway tickets when these were compulsory and which formed the nucleus of the Haj Relief Fund. This feature of the pilgrimage complicated the question immensely. He was of opinion that no satisfactory arrangement could be devised which would admit of refunds being made to pilgrims who did not return by sea, while not opening the door to grave abuses. It would be impossible either to prevent pilgrims from obtaining refunds by means of false declarations, in which case they would spend, or would conceal the possession of, the money paid to them and would be thrown, as before, on the hands of the British authorities at Jeddah, or to ensure that the refunds were paid to the rightful claimants and not to persons who had obtained the return halves of tickets by purchase or by fraud. Having regard to the immense numbers to be dealt with, no system of identification of ticket holders at Jeddah, designed to prevent such transfers, was in his opinion practicable. There would thus, in spite of all efforts, be a large residuum every year of pilgrims who for one reason or another were unprovided with the means of returning to India, and the difficulty complained of would not be removed, though it might be to some extent reduced in degree. Criticising the details of the scheme he compared unfavourably the term of two months within which presentation of the return half of a ticket would ensure a passage back to India within the nine months during which the railway return tickets were valid. He also enlarged on the excessive character of the rates proposed having regard to the average of the rates actually paid in the course of past years. The higher rates occasionally obtaining during the last two or three seasons were, he stated, due to exceptional causes and did not afford a fair basis of comparison. He contended that it was not right or just to inflict on the fifteen to twenty thousand pilgrims who annually performed the Haj all the inconvenience and loss which a compulsory return ticket system, under proper safeguards, necessarily involved, merely in order to prevent some two or three hundred of them from being stranded at Jeddah. He considered that if the British Government took steps to prevent the systematic robbing of pilgrims by the authorities at the quarantine station of Camaran, and if other Indian ports besides those of Bombay and Karachi were thrown open, there would be a very great improvement in the general conditions of the pilgrim traffic. Having taken these steps, he thought that Government should definitely announce that in future no assistance of any kind would be given to pilgrims at Jeddah for effecting their return to India. Subject to these conditions he would contemplate with equanimity the annual stranding at Jeddah of some two or three hundred indigent pilgrims. He considered that the convenience of the great mass of the pilgrims and their freedom from all undesirable restrictions were more important considerations than the restoration of the credit of the Mussalmans of India in the estimation of the Muhammedan world.

(* The actual figures for the past 25 years give an annual average of 2,900.)

7. The Hon'ble Sardar Syed Ali objected to the compulsory return ticket system on the ground that it would absolutely prevent many Muhammedans from undertaking the Haj pilgrimage whose bounden religious duty it was to perform it at least once in their lifetime, whether or not they had sufficient means to pay for the expenses of the journey. He was, he explained, referring to the "Sluff" sect who represented approximately 25 per cent. of the whole body of Mussalmans in India.

8. The Hon'ble Moulvi Rafiuddin Ahmed drew an unfavourable comparison between the treatment at the hands of the Turkish authorities in the Hedjaz of pilgrims from British India and that accorded to pilgrims travelling under the protection of the French, Russian or Dutch Governments, and maintained that the proper course in dealing with the difficulty was for the British Government to address a strong representation to the Turkish Government on the subject and to arrange for the posting of representatives at the various stages on the route of pilgrimage who would protect the interests of the Indian pilgrims. He attributed the annual standing of so many Indian pilgrims at Jeddah in a state of indigency to the exactions and robbery to which they were exposed in the course of the pilgrimage. He admitted that the better condition of the pilgrims from the Dutch Indies might be due to the fact that they came to the Hedjaz well equipped, thanks to the arrangements made by the Dutch Government, with the means of returning to their homes, but adhered to his objection to the institution of a system of compulsory return tickets. He considered that, provided that effective measures were adopted to protect the pilgrims from illegal exactions, there was no necessity for taking any further action with regard to this difficulty. He also, like Sir Ibrahim, was prepared to view with acquiescence the annual stranding at Jeddah of the residuum of pilgrims who went to the Haj with nothing but the means of getting to Mecca and without any provision for the return journey and whom, as he admitted, his proposals for the amelioration of Haj conditions would leave untouched.

9. The Hon'ble Mr. Ghulam Hussein endorsed the views already expressed, and laid stress on the certainty that a large proportion of the pilgrims would, in the course of the journey from Jeddah to Mecca and back, unlay or be robbed of their return tickets.

10. The Hon'ble Sir Fazulbhoy Currimbhoy also concurred in the above views. He maintained that the arrangements would affect no improvement in the conditions of the pilgrim traffic. He adduced specific instances in support of his contention that the shipping company to whom Government proposed to entrust these arrangements had already shown themselves unable to deal adequately with this traffic. In these circumstances nothing would be gained by giving them, or any other shipping firm, a monopoly of the traffic. In his opinion it was very desirable that the Government of India should arrange to appoint a committee consisting of the leading Muhammadans of every province with instructions to consider and submit definite proposals for improving the conditions of the pilgrim traffic. Personally he was of opinion that the difficulty referred to would always exist, as no scheme that could be devised would prevent pauper Mussalmans from making their way out to the Haj and then begging their way back.

11. The Hon'ble Mr. Hill in bringing the proceedings to a close said that he proposed in the first instance to communicate to Khan Bahadur Syed Shamsuddin Kadri (Collector of West Khandesh) the opinions which had been elicited in the course of the discussion, and to ask him for his observations and suggestions regarding them. He undertook that the above opinions would be adequately represented in the reply which the Bombay Government would in due course address to the Government of India on the question, though he naturally reserved to himself the right of criticising them freely and of indicating the almost wholly negative and destructive character of the arguments by which they were supported and the "non possumus" attitude which they generally represented.

Note by Khan Bahadur Syed Shamsuddin Syed Mian Kadri.

The opinions elicited at the informal Conference in Poona are remarkable for their vagueness and contain no practical suggestion for improving the lamentable situation.

2. I beg to agree with the Honourable Mr. Claude Hill, C.S.I., C.I.E., I.C.S., subject to the following modifications:—

(1) That the passage rates proposed are excessive and may be reduced.

(2) That maximum rates may be fixed for the single as well as the return voyage.

(3) That tenders may be invited for the monopoly and that the monopoly may be given to the lowest bidder.

(4) That the return ticket system may not be made compulsory until the results of the working of the monopoly system are definitely known.

(5) That a "Haj Fund" may be raised in the whole of India for the repatriation of destitute Hajis at Jeddah.

3. My reasons for making the above suggestions are stated in the following paragraphs.

4. A dispassionate consideration of the complicated Haj problem leads to the inevitable conclusion that the repatriation of destitute pilgrims stranded at Jeddah is not the only difficulty to be faced but that there is another equally serious difficulty felt almost every year by hundreds of poor pilgrims. It is due to the fluctuations in the passage rates according to the sweet will of shipping companies. Many pilgrims led away by false rumours start for the Haj in the hope of securing a cheap passage. On their arrival in Bombay, they find to their utter despair the rates tremendously high, but once having left their native place with a sincere desire to perform the Haj, they consider it a sin to go back. Consequently they exhaust their limited resources at the very outset. Such persons though not paupers get stranded at Jeddah on their return journey. Some of the misery at Jeddah is also due to the impression that the benign British Government would grant a free passage.

For these reasons, it is essential not only in the interests of those who get stranded at Jeddah but even for the welfare of a majority of pilgrims that the steamer rates should be fixed and announced beforehand so that every pilgrim may know exactly what provision he must make for the intended pilgrimage.

The only reasonable solution of this difficult problem that suggests itself under the present circumstances is to fix the maximum rates for a single as well as a return passage. To carry out this scheme, there is no alternative but to have the scheme of a monopoly; the two schemes are inseparable.

5. Here I must confess that this opinion of mine regarding a monopoly is not shared by a majority of Muhammadans both literate as well as illiterate, and the reasons for this difference of opinion are obvious.

The opposition is more or less sentimental and is based upon the misapprehension that Government want to restrict the Haj and interfere indirectly with the most sacred religious duty of Muhammadans.

Time and experience alone can remove this wrong impression. At present they are in an excited mood on account of the state of affairs in Turkey and are not open to conviction. Therefore, I beg respectfully to suggest that the final decision of this delicate subject may, if possible, be withheld until the present fervour subsides.

6. However, if it be deemed expedient to decide this matter without any further delay, I submit that moderate, maximum rates may be fixed for a single as well as a return passage. The rates for the return ticket may be only one-third more than the single passage rates and made so attractive as to induce a majority of pilgrims to take a return ticket. The present opposition to the return ticket system is mostly due to the proposed excessive passage rates because it is apprehended that they would come in the way of a large majority of ordinary pilgrims who think it their solemn duty to perform the Haj at least once during their lifetime.

As soon as the people find that the rates for the return tickets are decidedly advantageous and compare favourably with the single fare, they would resort to the return ticket system as is the case with the railway return tickets and the resentment due to the idea of compulsion would naturally disappear. The return ticket system should not therefore be made compulsory until it becomes popular. This would mainly depend upon the successful working of the shipping company that might get the monopoly. With a view to popularise the system, I beg to suggest that the following maximum rates may be fixed inclusive of the Cumran quarantine dues:—

	Maximum single passage	Maximum for the return ticket.
	Rs.	Rs.
October	75	100
September	60	80
August	45	60

With the exception of the last year, the rates of the shipping companies were generally very moderate specially when the competition used to be keen.

7. After the maximum rates are fixed, tenders may be invited and the monopoly given to the lowest bidder. The great advantage of an open competition would be that it would be possible to find out the lowest rates and the opponents of the monopoly shall have no grounds for complaint.

It is possible that some well-to-do Muhammadans may come forward to float a company for the purposes of Haj. At any rate, the Muhammadans at large shall have the satisfaction of knowing that Government did all they could to facilitate the performance of Haj. There is no doubt that "Haj" is imperative and all the Muhammadans of India are concerned in this question.

8. Lots of pilgrims go to Medina after the Haj. Therefore the guarantee of a return passage from Jeddah should be 5 months instead of 3½ months.

In the case of each holder of a return ticket who does not wish to return or who is certified by the British Consul at Jeddah to have died in the Hedjaz, the Company should, on production of the unused return voucher within 12 months, pay half the amount of the return ticket. I hope the above modifications and concessions would pacify the Mohammadans and prove acceptable to them.

9. In spite of all this, if Muhammadans do not assume a conciliatory attitude, they must be prepared to give a practical proof of their genuine sympathy for their co-religionists stranded at Jeddah and raise within six months a decent fund in every province and deposit the same with the Government of India, the annual income of which can be utilised for the repatriation of destitute Hajis at Jeddah. For this purpose, a committee of leading Muhammadans of each province may be appointed as proposed by the Hon'ble Sir Fazulbhoy with instructions to form sub-committees in all the important cities and towns of India to collect the necessary fund amounting from five to ten lakhs of rupees.

10. These are in my humble opinion the two practical ways of solving a long-standing problem instead of carrying on an acrimonious discussion.

Mysore No. $\frac{4314}{Ex.1}$, dated the 14th August 1913.

I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with your letter No. , dated the — on the subject of pilgrimage to the Hedjaz. The scheme suggested by the Government of Bombay in their letter of the 11th April 1913, involved the grant of a monopoly of the pilgrim traffic between India and Jeddah to a particular firm and the adoption of a system of compulsory return tickets. Local Governments were consulted in this department circular letter Nos. 818–826, dated the 16th May 1913, and their replies were forwarded to the Government of Bombay for information.

2. The Government of Bombay have now submitted revised proposals for improvement in the conditions of the Haj pilgrim traffic without resort either to a monopoly or to the system of compulsory return tickets. The proposals put forward have been discussed by the Governor in Council with prominent leaders of the Muhammadan community in the Bombay Presidency and it is reported that they meet with general acceptance. I am to forward a copy of the Bombay Government's letter No. 3097, dated the 21st April 1914 and enclosures, containing these proposals and to request that [with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council] after consultation with leading Muhammadan gentlemen and associations in the province, the Government of India may be furnished with the views of your Government.

3. The Government of India desire to emphasise the opinion expressed by the Government of Bombay in paragraph 12 of their letter regarding the necessity for early organisation of local Haj committees at the headquarters of each province with sub-committees at other important centres. In this connection I am to invite attention to this department letter Nos. 619–628, dated the 18th April 1913 in which local Governments were addressed on the question of the formation, as an experimental measure, of suitable local Haj committees. The Government of India will be glad to receive a report as to what progress has been made towards carrying out these proposals.

4. The Government of India believe that it would add to the usefulness of the provincial committees, in those provinces where the number of Hajis is relatively large, if they were provided with paid secretaries; and, subject to the sanction of His Majesty's Secretary of State for India, they would be glad to consider any reasonable proposal for assistance from Imperial funds towards the pay of these secretaries.

5. Subject also to the approval of the Secretary of State, the Government of India are disposed to agree to a non-recurring grant of one lakh of rupees being made from Imperial revenues to the Bombay Haj committee towards the proposed repatriation fund, on the condition indicated in paragraph 16 of the Bombay letter, viz., that the Mussulman community throughout India raises at least an equal sum within a reasonable period.

6. The proposals summarised in paragraph 15 involve an amendment of the rules under the Pilgrim Ships Act, 1895, and of the protection of Pilgrim Act, 1887 (Bombay Act II of 1887). I am to forward for the information of the Government of Madras a copy of the Bombay Government's letter No. 3096, dated the 21st April 1914, dealing with these amendments and to say that action is being taken separately on this letter. The proposed amendments in the rules under the Pilgrim Ships Act will in the ordinary course be published for criticism before they are finally issued. The bill to amend the protection of Pilgrims Act so as to require owners to notify the actual date of sailing and to impose a cumulative penalty in event of default will also be subject to further discussion when introduced into the Local Council.

7. I am to request that the matter may be treated as urgent and that [with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council] all possible intermediate action may be taken to meet the requirements of the ensuing Haj.

Ag. Chief Secretary.

No. 19.—The following notifications of the Government of India are republished:—

FOREIGN AND POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

Simla, the 16th July 1914.

No. 1178-I.-C.—The following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals which have been recently revised by command of His Majesty the King, Emperor of India, are published for general information. These Regulations supersede all those hitherto in force on the subject:—

A

REGULATIONS RESPECTING FOREIGN ORDERS AND MEDALS APPLICABLE TO PERSONS IN THE SERVICE OF THE CROWN.

Orders.

1. It is the King's wish that no subject of His Majesty in the Service of the Crown shall accept and wear the Insignia of any Foreign Order without having previously obtained His Majesty's permission to do so, signified either.

(a) By Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual; or

(b) By private permission conveyed through His Majesty's Private Secretary.

2. Permission given by Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual will enable the Insignia of the Foreign Order to be worn at all times and without any restriction.

Private permission will only enable the Insignia to be worn on the occasions specified in the terms of the letter from the King's Private Secretary conveying the Royal sanction.

3. Full and unrestricted permission by Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual is contemplated in the following cases:—

For a Decoration conferred—

On an Officer in His Majesty's Naval or Military Forces lent to a Foreign Government; or on an Officer in His Majesty's Naval or Military Forces attached by his Government to a Foreign Navy or Army during hostilities; or on any British Official lent to a Foreign Government and not in receipt of any emoluments from British public funds during the period of such loan.

4. Private or restricted permission is contemplated for Decorations which have been conferred in recognition of personal attention to the Head of a Foreign State, and which are therefore of a more or less complimentary character, and will, as a rule, only be given on exceptional occasions when in the public interest and for political reasons it is deemed expedient that the acceptance of a Foreign Decoration should not be declined. Private permission will generally be given in the following cases:—

For a Decoration conferred—

(1) On British Ambassadors or Ministers abroad when the King pays a State visit to the country to which they are accredited;

(NOTE.—A State visit is defined as one on which the King is accompanied by a Minister or High Official in attendance.)

(2) On Members of Deputations of British Regiments to Foreign Heads of States;

(3) On Members of Special Missions when the King is represented at a Foreign Coronation, Wedding, or Funeral; or on any Diplomatic Representative when specially accredited to represent His Majesty on such occasions; and such Members of His Staff who actually attend the ceremonies in their official capacity;

(4) On Naval and Military Attachés only after completion of five years' service at the post to which they are appointed in that capacity.

5. Private or restricted permission will not be given to—

(1) British Ambassadors or Ministers abroad when leaving;

(2) Members of British Missions announcing the Accession of a Sovereign;

(3) British Officers attending Foreign Manœuvres;

(4) Naval Officers of British Squadrons visiting Foreign Waters.

6. The desire of the Head of a Foreign State to confer upon a British subject in the Service of the Crown the Insignia of an Order must be notified to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs either through the British Diplomatic Representative accredited to the Head of the Foreign State, or through his Diplomatic Representative at the Court of St. James.

7. When His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the King's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained His Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to wear the Insignia of a Foreign Order, he shall signify the same to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause a Warrant, if it be a case for the issue of a Warrant as defined in Rule 2, to be prepared for the Royal Sign-Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the King, a notification thereof shall be inserted in the "Gazette," stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

Persons in whose favour such Warrants are issued will be required to pay to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department a stamp duty of 10*s.*

8. The Warrant signifying His Majesty's permission may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a clause providing that His Majesty's licence and permission does not authorise the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of His Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British subject in the Service of the Crown has received the Royal permission, full or private, to accept and wear the Decoration of a Foreign Order, he will not be allowed to accept and wear the Decoration of a higher class of the same Order without His Majesty's approval which will only be given if the higher honour is being conferred in circumstances contemplated by these Regulations.

Medals.

10. Medals which constitute a particular class of a Foreign Order, are subject in all respects to the Regulations in the same manner as higher grades of the Order, except that permission to wear will be given by Letter and not by Royal Warrant.

11. The King's unrestricted permission to accept and wear a Foreign Medal will only be given in the case of a Foreign Medal conferred by the Head or Government of a Foreign State for saving or attempting to save life at sea or on land.

12. The King's unrestricted permission to accept and wear a Foreign War Medal will only be given to (1) Officers of His Majesty's Military or Naval Forces if serving with a Foreign Army or Navy with His Majesty's licence, and (2) Military or Naval Attachés or other Officers officially attached to Foreign Armies or Navies during hostilities.

13. In exceptional cases, when for special reasons it is deemed expedient that the acceptance of the Medal should not be declined, His Majesty will grant restricted permission. Such cases will be judged on their merits, and the circumstances in which the Medal may be worn will be specified in the Letter conveying His Majesty's permission.

14. The term "person in the Service of the Crown" includes persons in receipt of a salary or pension from Public Funds, or holding a Royal Commission in any part of His Majesty's Dominions, Protectorates, or Possessions.

15. Ladies are subject to the Regulations in all respects in the same manner as men.

B

REGULATIONS RESPECTING FOREIGN ORDERS AND MEDALS APPLICABLE TO PERSONS NOT IN THE SERVICE OF THE CROWN.

Orders.

1. It is the King's wish that no subject of His Majesty shall wear the Insignia of any Foreign Order without having previously obtained His Majesty's permission to do so, signified either —

(a) By Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual, or

(b) By private permission conveyed through His Majesty's Private Secretary.

2. Permission given by Warrant under the Royal Sign Manual will enable the Insignia of the Foreign Order to be worn at all times and without any restriction.

Private permission will only enable the Insignia to be worn on the occasions specified in the terms of the letter from the King's Private Secretary conveying the Royal sanction.

3. The full and unrestricted permission by Warrant under the Royal Sign Manual is designed to meet cases where the Decoration may be said to have been earned by some valuable service rendered to the Head of the State confer ring it, or to the State itself. Application will be made to His Majesty for full permission by His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs on behalf of any person who, not being at the time in the Service of the Crown, is either in the salaried employment of a Foreign State or has rendered valuable services within the period of two years immediately preceding the notification of the Decoration to His Majesty's Government as prescribed under rule 5.

The expression "valuable services" must be construed as meaning some service rendered to a Foreign Head of State or Government specifically, and must be indisputably valuable in the strict sense of the word. Though such services need not necessarily be gratuitous, as in the case of a person actually in the employ of a Foreign Government, they must be unconnected with any transaction of a commercial or financial character brought about in the ordinary course of business. The term "valuable services" does not therefore, as a general rule, apply to services connected with the fulfilment of Government or Municipal contracts, the financing of Government or Municipal loans. It also does not include Red Cross Services, presentation of objects of value to Public Museums and Institutions, pecuniary donations or endowments, personal performances, services in connection with Exhibitions and Industrial Congresses, services in the domain of art, literature, science, education, and agriculture, services rendered by British subjects in the capacity of honorary Foreign Consular Officers.

4. Private or restricted permission is contemplated for Decorations which have been conferred in recognition of personal attention to the Head of a Foreign State or Member of a Reigning House, and which are therefore of a more or less complimentary character. Private permission is as a rule only given on exceptional occasions, when in the public interest and for political reasons it is deemed expedient that the acceptance of a Foreign Decoration should not be declined.

5. Both in the case of full and in that of private permission the matter will be submitted to the King by His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

The desire of the Head of a Foreign State to confer upon a British subject the Insignia of an Order or the fact that he has done so, must be notified to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs either through the British Diplomatic Representative accredited to the Head of the Foreign State, or through the Diplomatic Representative of the latter at the Court of St. James. His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall be under no obligation to consider claims that are not brought to his notice through one of these channels.

6 When His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the King's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained His Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to wear the Insignia of a Foreign Order, he shall signify the same to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause a Warrant, if it be a case for the issue of a Warrant as defined in Rule 5, to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the King, a notification thereof shall be inserted in the "Gazette," stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

Persons in whose favour such Warrants are issued will be required to pay to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department a stamp duty of 10s.

7. The Warrant signifying His Majesty's permission may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a clause providing that His Majesty's license and permission does not authorise the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of His Majesty's Realms.

8 When a British subject has received the Royal permission, full or private, to accept and wear the Decoration of a Foreign Order, he will not be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher class of the same Order without His Majesty's approval. His Majesty will in such cases grant permission only if the promotion in the Order is conferred for fresh services which come within these Regulations.

9 These Regulations apply only to Orders of Chivalry. Decorations conferred by Private Societies and Decorations of a purely academic nature, and all Decorations not being Orders of Chivalry, may be accepted without His Majesty's permission, but must not be worn.

Exception is made in the case of a few Foreign Orders, which, though not in strictness Orders of Chivalry, yet are of such a high distinction that, for the purpose of these Regulations, they are to be considered and treated as Orders of Chivalry.

10. Ladies are subject to the Regulations in all respects in the same manner as men.

Medals.

11. Medals which constitute a particular class of a Foreign Order are subject in all respects to the Regulations in the same manner as higher grades of the Order, except that permission to wear will be given by letter and not by Royal Warrant.

12. Medals for saving or attempting to save life at sea or on land conferred on behalf of the Head or Government of a Foreign State may be accepted without His Majesty's special permission, and may be worn at Court.

13. Medals conferred by Private Societies or Institutions and Commemorative Medals may be accepted without permission, but none of these medals can be worn.

14. The King's permission must be obtained for any other medal to be worn. No permission is needed to accept a Foreign medal if it is not intended to be worn.

15. His Majesty will not grant permission to wear any Foreign War Medal if the person on whom it is to be or has been conferred was during the war acting in contravention of the Foreign Enlistment Act.

2. The notification of the Government of India in the Foreign Department, No. 1339-1.-B., dated the 30th June 1911, is hereby cancelled.

MADRAS PEARL FISHERY, 1914.

Notice is hereby given that a Pearl Fishery will take place at Tondi in the Ramnad district on or about 27th August 1914.

The Banks to be fished are:—

(a) The Tondi Bank estimated to contain 20,000,000 oysters, sufficient to employ 100 boats for twenty-five days taking average loads of about 7,000 per day.

(b) The Karungadu Bank estimated to contain 400,000 oysters, sufficient to employ 100 boats for one day's fishing.

2. Fishing will begin on the first favourable day after 26th August. It is therefore recommended that such boat-owners and divers as may wish to be employed should be at Tondi on or before 21st August.

3. Owing to the difficulty of controlling a large number of boats, the undersigned reserves the right to restrict the number allowed to take part in the fishery, and preference will be given to divers who work in the Government Chank Fisheries. As the fishery will be of moderate dimensions, it is calculated that the supply of local divers will be sufficient for all requirements. Divers from Ceylon and the Persian Gulf are therefore warned that if they attend, they will do so at their own risk. Owners should note that owing to the shallowness of the sea off Tondi, large boats drawing over two feet are not suitable.

4. Every boat-owner whose boat is accepted for the fishery shall sign an undertaking to observe the rules issued for the conduct of boats and divers during the fishing operations; a copy of these rules will be supplied to all applicants. To ensure the due observance of these rules a deposit of Rs. 8 for each diver employed in his boat shall be lodged as security by each boat-owner with the undersigned.

5. The fishery will be conducted on account of Government and the oysters put up for sale in such lots as may be deemed expedient.

6. Tondi is a seaport on the Ramnad coast. It is in weekly steamer communication with Pamban and Colombo and arrangements have been made for a daily steamer service from Pamban from 20th to 29th August inclusive. Tondi may also be reached by cart from Ramnad railway station (30 miles) and by sailing boat from Mandapam, Pamban, and Adirampatnam and Muttupet (Tanjore district).

The camp will be situated close to the town where supplies of water and provisions will be obtainable. Pearl merchants should be able to secure suitable accommodation in the town itself.

7. Payments for oysters to be in cash or in Government of India notes. Drafts on the Bank of Madras and Bank Agencies will also be received on letters of credit being produced to warrant the drawing of such drafts.

8. All further particulars may be obtained on application to the undersigned. Letters to him should be addressed to Tuticorin up to 18th August after which date they should be addressed to Tondi.

J. HORNELL,
Superintendent of Pearl and Chank Fisheries.

Tuticorin, 13th July 1914.
